Good Morning [REDACTED]

As you may have seen from the most recent SZC Information Request Log submission, minor updates have been made to TR175 since original informal submission. The changes include:

- Corrected minor inaccuracies in Table 4;
- updated Appendix table format including full datasets;
- removal of incorrect page header from p29 onward;
- added 'Methods' section heading; &
- some minor corrections to clarify text around make up of artificial seawater and re deviation from target temperature in quality assurance section.

The 'Hydrazine Reports.zip' has now been re-uploaded onto the EA ShareFile.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

[REDACTED]
