

Proposed Changes

Other than the change from a waste operation facility environmental permit to an installation one, there are no changes to either the waste codes accepted, the activity codes, the throughput, storage capacity or design and operation of the plant.