Hello Laura

Further to our telephone conversation, I am writing to confirm that Mr James Eld will be the operator of the above site.

Going forward, if the operator should change, we will ensure to advise you and apply for the licence to be placed in their name.

If you need anything further, please let me know.

Regards

Julie

Hello Laura

Apologies for the delay, I'm only just back into the office.

The situation is that James Eld, the landowner, is building the unit and all installations and then we will negotiate a tenancy agreement with the proposed operator (WAH). I therefore think at this stage, all the cost and commercial risk, is with Mr Eld, so the permit should be in his name at this stage. It may be that we transfer the name once the tenancy is negotiated, or that we keep the same name but have it as a clause in the tenancy that WAH are obliged to act in accordance with all matters related to the Permit.

Is this acceptable to you?

Kind regards

Julie

Good morning Julie,

I have just picked up your application for duly making purposes and wanted to confirm the legal operator before continuing.

The permit is being applied for by Mr James Eld but the supporting document states that the "holding" will be operated by WOT-A-HEN.

Therefore we would consider WOT-A-HEN to be the legal operator and not Mr James Eld.

Please see our guidance for further information on legal operators before confirming who the legal operator is.

Kind Regards
Laura
