Appendix 2 – Site Walkover Photographic Record

Photo looking south at the site from the vehicle entrance point. The site comprises the asphalt surface lorry park. Propane storage tanks and buildings beyond are offsite to the south of site. The digestate storage tanks are offsite to the east.

Photo looking west in the north of the site. An electrical substation was present in the northeast corner of the site within a secure masonry building. The surrounding ground was surfaced with asphalt and used as a lorry park.

Photo looking east in the south of the site showing the smaller of the two electrical substations. Some broken concrete and sparse vegetation growth observed at surface.
