4 Restoring sustainable abstraction

4.1 Is the change a result of the 'restoring sustainable abstraction' programme?

The restoring sustainable abstraction (RSA) programme has identified abstractions that need to be stopped or altered in order to prevent further environmental damage. If you are making this application as a result of investigations under the RSA programme, tick the 'Yes' box below.

No
Yes

5 Changes to licence details

5.1 In the box below, tell us which part of the licence you want to change (for example, licence holder's address)

Move condition g(ii) on the abstraction licence (relating to the compensation flow and water bank) to the impoundment licence no. 2671311005. Both licences relate to [REDACTED] reservoir. Rather than place the water bank on the impoundment licence, we are happy to discuss developing a Section 20 agreement for the water bank which would give more flexibility (given our ongoing discussions with the EA regarding changing the water bank release regime).

We have two ongoing impoundment licence variations that relate to this abstraction licence variation. On the 22 March 2022 we applied via a WR2 minor variation to update the licence holder name and address. On the 11 March 2022 we applied for an impoundment licence variation related to a weir raising project (ref. NPS/WR/035903).

We have discussed this application with Alison McLean, EA.

5.2 What do you want it changed to?

To remove condition g(ii) on the abstraction licence and instead place the requirements on to the associated impoundment licence. Rather than place the water bank on the impoundment licence, we are happy to discuss developing a Section 20 agreement for the water bank which would give more flexibility (given our ongoing discussions with the EA regarding changing the water bank release regime).

When condition g(ii) is moved, a correction needs to be made due to an error in the conversion between gallons and megalitres for the water bank which should be 909 MI not 9.09 MI.

5.3 Why do you want to make the change?

Alison McLean, EA, has recommended we apply for this minor variation to the abstraction licence as EA practice now is to place compensation flow and water bank requirements on impoundment licences rather than abstraction licences; and we have ongoing impoundment licence applications so this change can be accommodated as part of those applications.

6 Declaration and signature

7 The Data Protection Act 1998

We, the Environment Agency, will process the information you provide so that we can:

- deal with your application;
- make sure you keep to the conditions of your licence;
- process renewals;
- advertise your application and make it available to the public in line with the Water Resources Act 1991; and
- keep the public registers up to date.

We may also process or release the information to:

- offer you documents or services relating to environmental matters;
- consult the public, public bodies and other organisations (for example, the Department for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, the Health and Safety Executive, local authorities, the emergency services) on environmental issues;
- carry out research and development work on environmental issues;
- provide information from the public register to anyone who asks;
- prevent anyone from breaking environmental law, investigate cases where environmental law may have been broken, and take any action that is needed;
- assess whether customers are satisfied with our service, and to improve our service; and
- respond to requests for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (if the Data Protection Act allows).

We may pass the information on to our agents or representatives to do these things for us.

8 Commercial confidentiality and national security

You may be able to claim commercial confidentiality for information contained in your application. Please read the guidance note for this question, WR25 – Public register and advertising applications, before responding below.

Tick the box if you want to claim commercial confidentiality for some information in your application. Please treat the information listed and justified in the attached letter as commercially confidential.

Note: You should make sure that we can easily identify the information which you consider to be confidential. It will help us if the information you want us to treat as commercially confidential is provided in a way which will allow it to be easily removed (for example, on separate pages marked 'claimed confidential').

You can ask the Secretary of State for information in your form not to be included in any public notice or the public register because including it would be a risk to national security. With your application you must enclose a letter telling us that you have asked the Secretary of State for this, and you must still include the information in your application. We will not include the information in any public notice or public register unless the Secretary of State decides that it should be included.

You cannot apply for national security through this application.

9 Next steps

You must keep to the terms of your existing licence until we tell you that your licence has been changed.

If you are happy with our service, please tell us. It helps us to identify good practice and encourages our staff. If you're not happy with our service, or you would like us to review a decision we have made, please let us know.

More information on how to do this is available from our complaints and appeals procedures (www.gov.uk/government/organisations/environment-agency/about/complaints-procedure).
