Morning Ian

This is a rare collector's edition – According to our mapping system, there appear to be no relevant nature conservation sites within the 2,5 & 10km screening buffers and as such there is no need for an assessment. I have based the assessment on the proposed location of sheds as shown on the location plan. Should the location change, particularly if the sheds were to be sited further East which is toward the nearest nature conservation site, I would advise a copy of this e-mail is submitted with any permit application to evidence why there is no screening report.

Best regards,
Ian
