These images show the areas at risk of flooding in Reading & Caversham before and after the proposed flood alleviation scheme is in place. This is based on a major flood with a 0.5% chance of happening each year. We have used flood modelling data to produce this scenario. This size of flood is bigger than any previously recorded flooding in Reading. We will update this information as the scheme is developed further.